

TORONTO INDIE-SOUL ARTIST

JEREMY VOLTZ

WWW.JEREMYVOLTZMUSIC.COM

ABOUT

JEREMY VOLTZ

Burned-out mathematician turned indie-soul artist, Jeremy Voltz's music is inspired by thinking deeply about the people in his life and what he'd love to have the courage to say to them.

Reminiscent of Jeff Buckley, Hozier, and Stevie Wonder, he has a voice that is powerful and haunting. As a vocalist, Voltz has toured the UK, Italy, Japan, Mexico, and across the US and Canada.

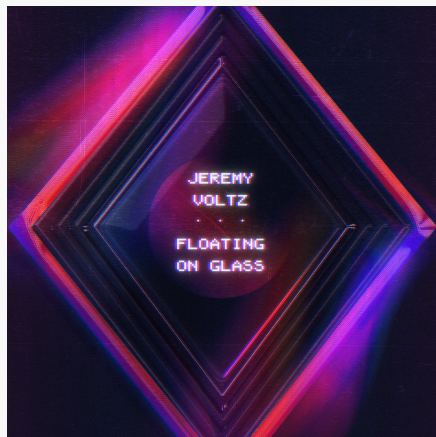

His lyrics are universal and heartfelt, and his songs have been featured in film and television. Currently on Spotify's Discover Weekly Playlist, his song "One Day at a Time" has millions of worldwide listens and inspired a successful children's book. Voltz recently released his first full length studio album, Weekender, with multi-JUNO-winning producer, Michael Wojewoda (Barenaked Ladies, Buffy Sainte-Marie).

DISCOGRAPHY

WEEKENDER ALBUM OCTOBER 2022

Produced by Michael Wojewoda (Barenaked Ladies, Buffy Sainte-Marie), featured airplay on CBC Radio 1, Humber Radio, and more.

FLOATING ON GLASS FEBRUARY 2021

Acapella single, featuring a Canada Council for the Arts supported music video by visual artist Brian Michael Jensen.

BEND THE TRACKS ALBUM OCTOBER 2018

Published through Nightingale Music, pick of the month and editor's choice on APM. Multiple sync placements.

FIRST APRIL 2018

Distributed through Sony Music Canada, FACTOR-supported music video through Orchard, with 50k views.

Voltz's debut single, "First", was produced by NU Music Group and distributed through Higher Reign Music and Sony Music Canada. "Voltz has some absolute PIPES and he can sing with soul", says Ear To the Ground Music. "When you combine those elements, you get a song like 'First.'"

Voltz's acoustic indie-folk EP, "Bend the Tracks", featured his hit song "One Day at a Time", with over half a million Spotify listens. Songs from "Bend the Tracks" have been used by Hallmark, TLC, the NFL, and the CBC.

Songs from "Weekender", Voltz's first full length studio album have been featured on over 100 playlists and played on numerous radio stations across Canada, including CBC Radio 1. The music video for "Fall Apart" reached 25,000 views in just over one week.

VIDEOS

FALL APART / 25K VIEWS

From Toronto Arts Council supported album, "Weekender".

FIRST / 50K VIEWS

Distributed through Orchard, FACTOR supported

LIFE IS FINE / 315K VIEWS

Countermeasure original "Life is Fine", FACTOR supported

NOTABLE PERFORMANCES

- Yonge & Dundas Square (Toronto)
- The Horseshoe Tavern (Toronto)
- Plan B (Halifax)
- 3030 Dundas St W (recorded live album) (Toronto)
- Nathan Phillips Square as vocalist (Toronto)
- The Blarney Stone (Osaka, Japan)
- Fête des vendanges Festival (Magog, QC)
- Sony Centre for the Performing Arts as vocalist (Toronto)
- Koerner Hall as vocalist (Toronto)
- Hugh's Room (Toronto)
- Rivoli Pool Hall (Toronto)
- C'est What? (Toronto)
- Springtide Music Festival (Uxbridge)
- Hugh's Room Live (Toronto)
- Brothers Lounge (Cleveland, OH)
- Hideout's The Bout Festival (Toronto)
- The Dakota Tavern (Toronto)
- Indie Week (Toronto)
- Folk Music Ontario showcase

QUOTES

"an acoustic soulful masterpiece...the right record at the right time."

-Global Money World, USA

"Voltz's song "One Day at a Time" could actually save someone's life."

- Rock the Pigeon

"...a timeless harmonic treat... with his soul-infused voice, this lush gem is perfect all the time."

-Jansen's Jamz, Netherlands

---

CONNECT

---

@jeremyvoltzmusic

/jeremyvoltzmusic

www.jeremyvoltzmusic.com

@jervoltz

(647) 448-8018

info@jeremyvoltzmusic.com